

Marine Bank & Trust Company Recognized as Member of the Year

Presented: January 27, 2016

The Member of the Year Award acknowledges a Chamber member or business who, through their involvement has positively impacted our chamber programs and our member services.

Our 2015 Member of the Year Award recognizes Marine Bank & Trust Company. Marine Bank has been active in the Chamber for 19 years. From the day they opened their office on Beachland Boulevard, the president of the bank and each employee has been involved in the chamber. They have consistently been wonderful volunteers and taken leadership responsibilities in our organization.

Their employees have served on countless chamber committees and task forces. They are represented at every Chamber event since joining the Chamber years ago. They host and sponsor chamber programs such as business after hours, chamber networking breakfasts, the chamber golf classic, and meetings such as this annual meeting.

Two of their presidents - Andrew Lawrence and Bill Penney - have served on our board - Bill as Chairman for two and a half terms, and he now serves as our immediate Past Chairman. Their employees have served on committees, volunteered at events, attended chamber and helped us check-in attendees at chamber functions. Several of their employees have served as chamber ambassadors.

Mary Cone served several terms as chair and co-chair of the ambassadors welcoming new members, referring prospective members, attending ribbon cuttings, and new member receptions.

Bank employees are engaged in our industry appreciation awards process and help at that awards events.

Marine Bank is the sponsor of a low income and minority scholarship for the Chamber's Leadership Indian River County Program and several of their employees have graduated from the Leadership Program.

The bank is a member of both the young professionals and established professionals networks and participate at every event.

When we put out the call - Marine Bank is there ready to provide volunteers and financial support. And, like tonight, Marine Bank is front and center.

We are pleased to recognize to Marine Bank & Trust Company as our 2015 member of the year. Mary Cone accepted the award on behalf of Marine Bank.
